School Report

- ❖ Finley – David Ingram – Percussion Concert February 8th on Thursday at Howard, March 2 solo and ensemble contests take place, took All Region kids to Six Flags
- ❖ Howard – Angelyn Seppeler – We had almost 300 attend DSL, working on getting all fundraiser money turned in.
- ❖ Paul Jaso reported that the Junior High percussion concert costs are $5 per adult and $2 per student.

- ❖ WHS – Rich Armstrong – Great all state success. Jazz Café went well, students played well. 5th grade concert piqued interest for students. We have begun planning the design and production for next year's marching band program. We are now 6A grouped together with South Grand Prairie, Desoto, Mansfield. We will be doing a trip next year. Location to be determined. New uniforms and instruments have been requested. School board to approve Monday. We may have to consider a possible increase in band fees for the students. We have decided on 2 BOA contests, Dallas and Waco. School start dates are being discussed. Busing students for practices. Possible 3 concession stands next year. Saturday practices are being planned. August practices will start at 8am not 7 for 1 week. Coordination of three junior highs will prove to be challenging.

Other Business

- Possible change to Jazz Café location when we are in the new school
- Need a larger committee starting early for the Jazz Cafe
- SAGU hosting a football combine for seniors, Booster have been asked to man the Concession stand 7 or 8am – 12 or 1pm on March 3rd, Colorguard may work
- We need a nominating committee (3 or 4) to help find next year's board officers, need to have nominees for April meeting
- We need a special meeting in May to vote in new members
- May 12th Band Banquet- 48 Seniors- senior bags? Give picture to seniors
- May 10th Spring Concert
- Band Booster scholarships – need 3 to 5 essay judges from outside of the city
- Thank you cards for donations to the Jazz Café
